A CONFERENCE respecting a uniform bankrupt act will be held at Washington early in January.

SPEAKER CARLISLE is free from the imputation of having punished his enemies or rewarded his friends.

RABBITS were offered this week as low as five cents each. They were never known to be so abundant as now.

THE Legislature meets on the 31st inst., and the caucus for the various offices will be held Saturday night.

THE shipments of coal from Pittsburgh on the present high water are expected to amount to about six million bushels.

REPRESENTATIVE PRICE, of Wisconsin, will urge the passage of a bill giving $10 a month for life to every soldier and sailor who served ninety days during the late war.

"SHOOTING" whisky seems to have been the sort they drank in Paris on Christmas day. Four men are reported as having been shot there on that day—two fatally and two, perhaps, only seriously.

THE south gets twenty-nine chairmanships and the north twenty-four. The ways and means committee is clearly free trade. The chairmanships of twenty committees have been given by the speaker to men who voted against him.

CHAIRMAN BUCKNER, of the Committee on Banking and Currency, doubts whether any banking legislation can be secured during the present session, but he will introduce a bill providing for the issuing of Treasury notes without legal tender quality, to take the place of bank notes going out of circulation.

CONGRESSMAN FOLLETT met representatives of the whisky trade for the purpose of obtaining a fuller information relative to the bonded interests. He thinks there is no doubt of the bill, which will be introduced by Representative Willis, of Kentucky, passing. The Ways and Means Committee are known to favor it.

The electric light has been abandoned at Paris, France, as too costly, after several years' use. The expenditure during that time was from eleven to thirteen times more than it had been in former years for gas lighting. It is claimed, by way of explanation, that the great expense of electricity was caused by putting the wires under ground, which is where they should go as they are fatal to life and dangerous to property if put anywhere else.

THE first loom, it is stated, ever made in the South, was put in operation in the Atlanta Cotton Factory last week. It was made by the Georgia Mill Supply Company, of Atlanta, and the superintendent says it is the best loom in the factory. The Supply Company claims that it can undersell the Eastern loom makers, because iron, coal, labor and wood are cheaper at Atlanta. They have just finished an order for fifty looms, and have several hundred others ordered.

THE city officials of Louisville are puzzled over the property assessments of the city for 1894, which aggregate $62,127,322 against $66,118,534 last year, and $63,284,100 in 1893. It is claimed that the city has doubled in population and wealth in the past fifteen years, and yet it will be seen that there is a decline in the assessment of more than $1,000,000 compared with 1890. Manifestly, there is a blunder somewhere, but just what it is none of the Louisville officials seem to know at present.

A MR. POWLING was, about fifty years ago, the manager of the Maysville theatre. It is said of him, that on the occasion of the appearance of the famous Mrs. Drake in Maysville, that when the audience became impatient he went to the footlights with the explanation: "When Mrs. Drake gets through cleaning herself and sucking her baby, she will appear in a fancy dance." The announcement, we are informed, was not taken as anything particularly out of the way, as actresses in those days were not afraid to be mothers, and cleanliness was considered next to godliness then as now.

THE Ashland Express says: We believe our exemption laws, enacted for humane and benevolent purposes, should be so amended as instead of specifying what articles of household goods and other articles should be exempt, as to say what property of a specified value should be exempt; and giving to the unfortunate debtor the articles he claims under the law, which then, would be more just and equal in its operation; and, in order to help helpless women and children, having drunken, or otherwise worthless husbands and fathers; such households should be deprived of the right to dispose of any of the exempted property unless with the consent in writing signed by the wife and the payment to her of the proceeds.

RURAL ENGLAND.

Hearty Old Fashioned Politeness and Fresh Unaffected Country Girls.

[London Letter in New York Sun.]

Almost the first thing you are told when you take up your temporary residence in Blankshire, is that your comments must be guarded and your conversation diplomatic, as all the families within a visiting radius of twenty miles are related to each other. And so they are, for a death puts all the countryside in mourning, while a wedding calls out universal sympathy. Along the route of the bridal cortege, every cottage or farm house hangs out its little decoration, and in the town every tradesman has his flag, his bunch of flowers, or his bit of bunting, for he has not catered for the wants of the young couple from their christening upward!

Visitors and invitations promptly flow in upon the new comer with a hearty old-fashioned politeness. Dinner parties are not popular. In the summer other gatherings are preferred; and in winter or autumn the male portion of the community, the men who have been shooting and hunting for seven or eight hours, refuse to don the tail coat and white tie and drive ten miles for a ceremonious meal. Moreover, coachmen and groom, hard worked by their attendance on the exacting hunter (meaning the quadruped), turn crusty at being kept out till the small hours for social duties, although they are ever ready to turn out at 1 a. m. when it is necessary to ride eighteen miles to be at a meet for club hunting at 5 in the morning.

The girls—the strong, fresh, healthy, unaffected girls of Blankshire—seem to exist on lawn tennis, with an occasional trial at cricket, in which manly sport they are no mean adepts. But tennis is the inevitable, the universal, the all-engrossing game. In front of the low, broad, many-windowed, creeper-grown houses of the gentry, spread the well-kept lawns, smooth as carpets, soft and springy as moss, and across their green expanse are stretched as many nets as the accurate measurement of the courts will allow. There from morning till sunset the balls fly, sent over by strong, supple wrists, while the air echoes to reiterations of the tennis slang. The men of all ages and denominations are clad in their flannels, and, like the girls, wear the flat India rubber soled shoe, for on no account must the admirably kept turf be cut up. While the game progresses the strangers and the non-players are piled with tea and the thinnest of bread and butter.

At no hour between 3 and 6 can you pay a visit in the country without the neat silver service being brought in, and the rites of 5 o'clock tea complied with. Then you are shown over the house by the kind hostess, and gladden her soul by genuine admiration of the rare bits of china, the quaint-carved balusters of oaken staircases, odd recesses, curious old engravings, older and more curious books in gigantic bindings and colossal type. Among these, in strange dissonance, and yet unmistakably the index to the keynote of courtly minds, shines the red binding of all the peerages and volumes dedicated by Burke, Debut and others to the nobility and gentry. Some are in three volumes, others fat and voluminous like a commercial directory, others only pocket editions of the same. Each family knows its own lineage and descent of every other. What the New Testament was to the old Covenanters, the printed record of its ancestors is to the British landowner—his vade mecum, his guide, his fundamental dogma. Some-times of two brothers only one figures in the "Landed Gentry." The other has lost his claims to appear in the "Livre d'Or," for he has embraced trade and become a brewer or brewer.

Young Ladies' Hair.

[Chicago Tribune.]

Young girls, in society, when in full dress, are wearing the hair arranged in five or six heavy curls in the back, confined low in the neck by a sparkling ornament of some description—a sabre with a hilt of mock diamonds, or Rhine stones and pearls, being very popular. The hair waves over the entire crown of the head, and is arranged in a fluffy, careless fashion over the forehead. No other ornament is worn when this style is adopted except the glittering sabre. Many young ladies wear the curls in the back and have all the rest of the hair cropped close and laid in loose, airy rings all over the head.

California Cotton Raising.

[Chicago Herald.]

Cotton raising in southern California has not proved as profitable as was expected, and the chief trouble seems to be inefficient labor and its high price. Most of the planters engaged Chinese to do the work for them, but one season's experience has proved that, while the Chinaman demands almost as much for his work as the white man, he cannot pick one-third the amount of cotton. A number of negroes are to be engaged to take the place of the Celestials.

Trying to Inaugurate a Strike. PITTSBURG, Dec. 26.—Some of the employees of the Pittsburgh and Western Road are making a rather ineffectual attempt to get up a strike in opposition to the recent reduction in wages. Several conductors decided to quit the service of the company rather than submit to the cut in wages, and the through freight, which should have started out at 9:10 was delayed on account of having no crew. In this instance the brakemen went with their conductor, although their wages had not been reduced. So far only two conductors have quit work, and one or two of the engineers threaten to leave the road.

Still After the Stewart Estate. BOSTON, Dec. 26.—A cousin of the late A. T. Stewart has turned up at Johnson, Vt., and entered suit for a share of the millionaire's estate. His name is John Stewart. He hails from County Antrim, Ireland, where he was born, his father being Thomas Stewart, brother of A. T. Stewart's father. His counsel are ex-Governor Hendee and Hon. George Waterman, who consult with L. E. Chittenden, of New York, the lawyer who won a slice of the estate for Alexander and Matthew Stewart, of Proctorville.

A Teacher Tried for Flogging a Child. CHATTAUGUAY, Ind., Dec. 26.—Some time since Temple H. Dunn, Superintendent of the Public Schools here, administered a terrible whipping to a scholar named Ros Krug, fifteen years old. He compelled the boy to lie across a chair, and whipped him until his body was black and blue. Dunn was arrested, and has been on trial the last three days. The jury disagreed standing seven for conviction and five for acquittal. The teacher will be tried again.

Triple Murder in North Carolina. RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 25.—A triple murder was committed at Chatham Church, six miles from Monroe. The victims were Mrs. Olive Gunter, eighty years old, and her daughter and grand daughter. Each was struck several blows with an axe. Every effort is being made to arrest the murderer, but as yet no clue has been discovered.

ALL articles which may be accidentally left in the street cars, will be found at the office of the company on Court street, where they may be had by the owners.

It is a settled fact that the new Handy will be able to run with ease something over eight miles an hour. She will be able to show her heels to some of the leading favorites.

W. C. SADDLER, agent of the K. C. R. R., was presented, on Christmas day, by the attaches of his office, with a hand some merschaun pipe and a box of choice cigars. Speeches but "no wine."

JUDGE POLLETT, of East Maysville, sold, recently, his lot on Second street, fronting forty-five feet, to Mr. H. H. Collins for $800 cash. Mr. Collins, we are informed, expects to build on it next spring.

MR. JAMES A. SCUDDER, of Terre Haute, Ind., writes the BULLETIN that he has received a Christmas gift in the shape of a fine girl baby, and that old Santa Claus in making the selection hit the nail on the head exactly.

Masonic Notice.
Annual meeting of Confidence Lodge, No. 52, F. and A. M., to-night at 7 o'clock. Election of officers and payment of dues. A full attendance is expected.
S. P. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

A GENTLEMAN who was in Maysville yesterday making purchases, said to the writer that he had bought certain articles which he named, drugs, carpets and furniture, for less money than the same things were priced to him at Cincinnati. This corroborates what the BULLETIN has all along said about our home merchants.

At a recent meeting of the I. O. W. M., the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing six months:

President—P. W. Wheeler.
Vice President—T. M. Laman.
Recording Secretary—J. C. Fleming.
Financial Secretary—Wm. C. Crowell.
Treasurer—W. W. Ball.
Conductors—J. P. Walker.
Chaplain—E. H. Eshon.
Inner Guard—George Jackson.
Outer Guard—S. P. Bridges.

The Ripley (O.) Scout says: Stamm's Silver Cornet Band assisted at the Bazaar given by Haucke's band of Maysville, Friday evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and a handsome sum was realized on that occasion. Our boys are loud in their praise of the royal manner in which they were entertained by the band and ladies connected with the Bazaar.

Gala Day.
Baird's Minstrel troupe, numbering thirty performers, with one of the finest bands in the country, will appear at the opera house on Tuesday, January 1st, at a family matinee in the afternoon and in a performance at night. The entertainment will be one of the best ever given in Maysville. Our readers in the country should see the grand parade in the morning and attend the afternoon performance. The matinee prices are 50 and 25 cents. There will be an entire change of programme at night.

The committee entrusted with the management of the bazaar for the benefit of Haucke's band, desire to correct the statement made in this paper that the receipts amounted to $450. They amounted actually to only $332. It might have been better, but still the boys are well pleased, when they considered, that many persons who would gladly have attended the entertainment were prevented from going by the inclement weather that prevailed during the best part of the week. We are requested to say that the band returns their sincere thanks, first to the ladies who so earnestly worked to make the affair a success, and then to the standing committee of the Washington Fire Company for many courtesies extended, and lastly to the people generally for generous donations and for their cordial sympathy and encouragement. The band did not realize the full amount necessary to provide the uniforms needed, and may again before the winter is over, ask the assistance of the public, which they will cheerfully repay musically in the future. Other cities with bands not so good as ours support them by monthly contributions, and we should, at least, generously aid our home organization whenever necessary to do so. The city is much better with a good band than without it. The plow and silver pitcher contributed to the bazaar have not yet been raffled, as all the chances were not taken when the entertainment closed Saturday evening. Chances on the former may be taken by applying to Miss Rachel Schatzman, and on the latter by calling on Misses Lizzie Greenwood and Hannah Swift at the European Hotel.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Charles Young is very sick to-day. Miss Susie Harding, of Covington, is visiting her grandmother Mrs. Susannah Nolin.

Miss Eva Case, of Newport, Ky., is spending the holidays with the family of Mr. J. L. Grant.

Misses Sallie and Minnie Moore, of Shawhan's Station, are the guests of the family of Mr. J. M. Nolin.

Dr. Robert N. Taylor's injuries by the fall of his horse recently, are more serious than at first supposed. His leg, we are informed, is badly broken just above the ankle in two places. Dr. A. G. Browning, of this city, is waiting upon him.

Things We Would Like to See.

COUNTY POINTS.

WASHINGTON.
Olen C. Owens, who is attending school at Danville, is at home spending the holidays. Miss Smith dismissed her school Friday evening until after new year, and is spending Christmas week in Maysville.

Mrs. Gus Lee and children, of Aberdeen, are the guests of Mr. Charles Anderson.

The Misses Rhodes are entertaining a friend from Winchester.

The daily mail failed to put in appearance yesterday on account of high water, and those who expected Christmas presents to be sent in that way have long faces.

Miss Orta Hunter gave a cotillion party to a few friends last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Boulden, who has been in Cincinnati for several weeks having her eyes treated, has returned home, and we are sorry to say, not much improved.

RELENA.
Another year has passed and we, by the providence of Him who holds our lives in the palm of His hand, have permitted us to enjoy the sunlight of another beautiful Christmas day.
Today we had the finest exhibition of tobacco that was ever on display to see. About ten days since Harrison Bros., the well-known firm of this place, announced that they would, on this day, award a premium of ten dollars in gold for the best sample of three hands. Thomas L. Best, David Raymond and Henry Thompson were selected as the gentlemen to tie the strings. They are men unbiassed in judgment and with a full amount of tobacco sense. Twenty-six samples were received. J. C. Sawyer was awarded first string, Alex. Duke second and Harrison Bros. of Orangeburg, third. After the strings were placed and premiums awarded, the tobacco was then put up and sold to the highest bidder, which was bought by R. W. Wells, who paid 55 cents per pound, aggregating $21.25. Wells is home tobacco expert and knows good tobacco when he sees it.
SPECTATOR.

MAYBECK.
Miss Mamie Duncan, a bright and charming young lady who is attending school at Anchorage, is at home spending vacation.

Lieut. Abe Gooding is spending vacation at home.

The sound of the sleigh bells are heard no more at this time.

Mr. Frank Laytham stuck a fork in his hand a short time since which has given him great pain.

A. G. Wilson is still at the Stonewall House cooped up by bad weather. Those needing anything on his line can see him by calling at his room No. 140, Stonewall House, can be seen at all hours, Sundays excepted.

Miss Minnie Kidd, a beautiful blonde of Winchester, is visiting the family of F. Laytham.

Squire J. D. Raymond's court convenes next Friday. A big docket and a lively time is anticipated.

The colored folks are having a good many festivals and one Christmas tree and many handsome presents were displayed on it.

Milton Bulger, one of our most respected colored citizens, has been quite for some time.

W. H. B. Taylor, one of our old landmarks, is in an appearance here on Christmas morning.

SARDIS.
Mr. J. T. Sult and Mr. Elias Collins have been west.

Mr. O. White proposes to buy a few crops of tobacco this season.

A valuable horse of Dr. Parry's was accidentally shot last week by a party of hunters. He lingered twenty-four hours and died.

Dr. Parry, of Maysville, sold his old crop of tobacco last week in Cincinnati at an average of $14.50 per hundred. He also sold a barn of his new crop for $15 per hundred at home.

The happy report of the wedding matinee at the home of Mr. W. P. Clarke, was wafted in a few interesting particulars. The bride wore a dazzling morning toilet of white satin and her veil was trimmed with pearls, lace, diamonds and rubies, and carried a bouquet of choicest roses. The toasts of the maid of honor—those attractive twin sisters, the Misses Rhodes, were notably happy. Miss Susan Clarke received all the guests and as the debutante of the occasion was much admired. We append a partial list of bridal presents:

Willie Heston and Fox Clarke, preserved dish.
Nesbitt & McKrell, lace scarf.
John Hunt, silk handkerchief.
James Roy Clarke, silk handkerchief.
Lyman Smith, silk handkerchief.
Willie A. Smith, pair of scissors.
Abel Rees, Jr., and wife, set of tea and dessert spoons.
Dank Clarke and wife, silver butter dish.
Joe Clarke and wife, silver sugar bowl.
W. P. Clarke and wife, tea set.
Lillie Rhodes, brush and comb.
Lillie Rhodes, brush and comb.

FOR SALE PRIVATELY.
I offer for sale privately my farm of two hundred and thirty-one and three-fourth acres, situated seven miles southeast of Maysville on Hickman Creek, in Jessamine county. The land is in blue grass and clover and is in good condition for growing any crop suited to this part of the State and is well adapted to growing tobacco. The improvements consist of a frame dwelling of seven rooms with porches and cellar, a well of good water near the door, a good barn, stable and wagon shed and other necessary out buildings. An orchard, stock water abundant and convenient, &c. The fencing on the creek is new and heavy timber and a good home for all purposes and fences mostly in good repair. Location is convenient to Church, school and mill. I will sell the property low and on easy terms as to parties desiring to own it will divide it to suit purchasers. If not sold by March 1st, I will rent to reliable parties. MRs. M. A. HERSPERGER, d20wtf Hanly, P. O. Ky.

CONDENSED NEWS.

The Lafayette flouring mill, with several other buildings, was destroyed by fire at Chippewa Falls, Wis., early Tuesday morning. Loss not ascertained; insurance, $30,000.

It is reported that a great council of Princes, Ministers and Generals is to meet at Peking to decide upon the course to be pursued in China in view of recent movements in Tongkin.

The Governor of the Soudan believes that 50,000 Egyptian or 20,000 Indian troops would be required in order to open the road to Better. Colonel Sartoris, however, says he could do the work with one black brigade.

The Berlin Vossische Gazette states that the Pope has conferred upon Herr Von Schloesser, German representative at the Vatican, the Grand Cordon of the Order of Pius IX, one of the highest honors in the gift of the Church.

ARTHUR G. CURRIER, of Newburyport, Mass., aged twenty-eight, son of an ex-Alderman, was shot and probably fatally wounded by Lena West, a woman of bad character, in a bar-room of the Bay State House.

A LAMP-LIGHTER at Birkenhead, opposite Liverpool, making his rounds on Sunday morning, saw something burning upon the pavement. He kicked the substance off the walk, whereupon it exploded with such force as to shatter several windows in the vicinity.

RICHARD VON STERNBERGER, a young German physician, aged twenty-six, and the son of a German Baron, committed suicide at 1896 Second avenue, New York, by taking morphine. The cause, apparently, was a broken marriage engagement and financial matters.

CHRISTMAS OBSERVANCES.

How the Day Was Passed in Various Places.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26.—Christmas in Washington has been unusually quiet, and, on account of the disagreeable weather, but few people were on the streets. All of the churches had early services—several at midnight—but all were slimly attended. The President returned from New York in the morning, and attended service at St. John's Episcopal Church at 11 o'clock. He was accompanied by his daughter, Nellie, and his son, Allan. Returning to the White House, he dined with the members of his family, and spent the remainder of the day quietly. The city police report fewer arrests than have been made for several years past on Christmas Day.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 26.—Christmas Day here passed off very quietly. The weather was delightful, and large throngs of people thronged the streets all day. Services were held at the different churches in the morning, and the matinee and evening performances at all the theaters were liberally patronized.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The Christmas services in the London churches were elaborate and brilliant. Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, celebrated high mass at St. George's Cathedral, Southwark, at midnight, assisted by the Bishop of Southwark. The musical services, which were impressive and grand, included the rendition of Mozart's Twelfth Mass.

Trains Badly Delayed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The storm has delayed all trains. Mails from the East were three hours late, those from the South two and a-half hours, while the Western mails had not been heard from at 11 to-day. The Pittsburgh mails were reported four and a-half hours behind. Travel in the city is subject to less interruptions, many streets having been partially cleared of snow.

The Creek Council.

LITTLE ROCK, Dec. 26.—The newly elected Council of the Creek Nation is now permanently organized. Henry Thompson was elected President of the House of Kings, and T. J. Adams Speaker of the House of Warriors, each for four years. The session promises to be unusually spirited.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 26.—Mrs. Kate Patton, aged fifty, a servant living at 239 West Fifth street, while passing a grate, about 9:30 Tuesday night, set her dress on fire, and, before assistance reached her, was so badly burned that she died shortly after.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

SANTA ROSA, California, Feb. 9, 1883. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gentles—I feel it a duty to others suffering with the pain and failing of the rectum to write to you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten days' use of Kendall's Spavin Cure, I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I felt at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gathered on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse, might benefit more, I tried it as a last resort. With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am faithfully yours, J. H. GLENN.

Kendall's SPAVIN CURE On HUMAN Flesh.

VEVAY, IND., Aug. 12th, 1881. DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gentles: Sample of circulars received to-day. Please send me some with my imprint, printed on one side only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Norris, one of the leading farmers in our county, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he had expected. Cured the sprain in very short order. Yours respectfully, C. O. THRELAND.

Price $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Evansburg, Pa. Send for illustrated circular. SEND FOR ALL DRUGGISTS.

Encouraged by the largely increased trade I have had during the last year, and being determined to further increase it the coming year, I have taken special pains in the selection of my stock for the fall and winter trade in order that I may be fully prepared to meet the wants of my customers in every particular. My goods are all first-class as to quality; purchased from first hands for cash, and I risk nothing in saying that I am prepared to successfully compete with any house in the city. I carry the largest and most complete stock of CANNED GOODS in the city, all strictly standard and guaranteed to give satisfaction. My house is headquarters for

What Dyspepsia Does.

It causes grievous pains by day and frightful dreams by night. It destroys the pleasure of a good dinner. It sours the disposition and makes its victim cross and petulant. It makes the breath bad, the eyes leaden, and the skin sallow. It makes the appetite capricious and unreasonable. It causes constant grumbling and complaining.

What "Brown's Iron Bitters" Does.

It invigorates the weakened stomach, and enables it to digest. It promotes the enjoyment of a hearty meal. It enriches the blood, improves the liver, and cheers the mind. It purifies the breath, clears the eyesight, and makes the skin natural. It brings a regular and healthy desire for food at proper times. Your DRUGGIST sells BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.
